9.5 The Commission may deal with the dispute in 2 stages:

- (1) The Commission will first attempt to resolve the dispute as it considers appropriate, including by mediation, conciliation, expressing an opinion or making a recommendation; and

- (b) Overtime will be payable to part-time Employees for time worked in excess of the hours fixed in accordance with the pattern of hours applicable to the Employee. However, a part-time Employee is not entitled to be paid overtime penalties on a day until they have worked at least an equivalent number of hours that day to an equivalent full-time Employee, provided that a part-time Employee will not work more than 38 hours in any week at ordinary rates.

Where the part-time Employee's normal paid hours fall on a public holiday prescribed by this Agreement and work is not performed by the Employee, such an Employee will not lose pay for the day. Where a part time Employee works on the public holiday they will be paid in accordance with clause 26 – Public Holidays of this Agreement.

10.3 Casual employment

- (e) nbn may engage Employees on a casual basis in which case employment may be terminated by an hour's notice given either by nbn or the Employee, or by the payment or forfeiture of an hour's pay as the case may be.
 - (f) A casual Employee is one engaged and paid as such, and for working ordinary time will be paid per hour 1/38th of the weekly wage prescribed by this Agreement for the work which the Employee performs, plus 25% casual loading.
 - (c) The casual loading described in clause 10.3(b) is paid on the Employees base rate of pay for all ordinary hours. The casual loading is not paid when an Employee works overtime or on a Public Holiday. However, where a casual employee works overtime or on a public holiday the applicable overtime or public holiday loadings will apply.
 - (d) Subject to the evidentiary and notice requirements in clause 22.3 or 22.4, casual Employees are entitled to not be available to attend work, or to leave work:
 - (i) if they need to care for members of their immediate family or household who are sick and require care and support, or who require care due to an unexpected emergency, or the birth of a child; or
 - (ii) upon the death in Australia of an immediate family or household member.
- nbn and the casual Employee will agree on the period for which the casual Employee will be entitled to not be available to attend work. In the absence of agreement, the casual Employee is entitled to not be available to attend work for up to 48 hours (i.e. two days) per occasion. The casual Employee is not entitled to any payment for the period of non-attendance.
- (e) Unless otherwise provided the provisions of clauses 11 Termination of Employment, 12 Redundancy, 21 Annual Leave, 22 Personal/Carers Leave and Compassionate Leave and 23 Community Service Leave do not apply to casual Employees.

Irregular casual Employees who are engaged by nbn to perform work on an occasional or non-systematic or irregular basis are not entitled to the provisions of this clause.
- (b) A casual Employee will not be engaged and re-engaged by nbn to avoid any obligation under this clause.

10.5 Limited tenure employment

- (a) An Employee may be engaged on a full time or part time basis for a specific period of time or for specific task(s). No Employee will be employed on a limited tenure arrangement for more than 2 years.

11. Termination of Employment

11.1 Notice by nbn

All Employees (except Probationary Employees, casual Employees and limited tenure Employees) are entitled to 5 weeks' notice on termination by nbn. A Probationary Employee will be given one weeks' notice on termination. nbn at its discretion may pay in lieu part or all of the period of notice.

11.2 Notice of termination by an Employee

The notice of termination required to be given by an Employee is the same as that required of nbn. If an Employee fails to give the required notice, nbn may withhold any monies due to the Employee on termination under this Agreement or the NES, an amount not exceeding the amount the Employee would have been paid under this Agreement in respect of the period of notice required by this clause less any period of notice actually given by the Employee. nbn may, at its discretion, require an Employee not to attend work during part or all of the period of notice.

11.3 Job search entitlement

Where nbn has given notice of termination to an Employee, and where the notice is not paid fully or partly in lieu by nbn, an Employee will be allowed up to one day's time off during the notice period without loss of pay for the purpose of seeking other employment. The time off is to be taken at times that are convenient to the Employee after approval from nbn.

12. Redundancy

12.1 An Employee, other than a casual and limited tenure Employee is entitled to be paid redundancy pay by nbn if the Employee's employment is terminated:

- (a) At nbn's initiative because nbn no longer requires the job done by the Employee to be done by anyone, except where this is due to the ordinary and customary turnover of labour; or
- (b) As otherwise provided in the NES redundancy sections as set out in the Act

12.2 The amount of redundancy pay equals the total amount payable to the Employee for redundancy pay period worked out using the table below:

Note:

After 11 years of service 2 weeks will apply for each year thereafter (pro rated) up to a maximum of 48 weeks.

Notice of termination provided for in clause 11 of this Agreement will apply in addition to the redundancy payment set out in this clause.

Weeks' pay under this clause means the Employee's base rate of pay for his or her ordinary hours of work.

Pro rata for the purposes of this clause means to the nearest completed month of service.

12.3 Transfer to lower paid duties

Where an Employee agrees to be transferred to lower paid duties by reason of redundancy, the same period of notice must be given as the Employee would have been entitled to if the employment had been terminated. nbn may also, at nbn's option, instead make payment of an amount equal to the difference between the former ordinary time rate of pay and the ordinary time rate of pay for the number of weeks of notice still owing.

12.4 Employee leaving during notice period

An Employee given notice of termination in circumstances of redundancy may terminate their employment during the period of notice. The Employee is entitled to receive the benefits and payments they would have received under this clause had they remained in employment until the expiry of the notice, but is not entitled to payment instead of notice.

12.5 Job search entitlement

- (a) An Employee given notice of termination in circumstances of redundancy must be allowed up to one day's time off without loss of pay during each week of notice for the purpose of seeking other employment.
- (b) If the Employee has been allowed paid leave for more than one day during the notice period for the purpose of seeking other employment, the Employee must, at the request of nbn, produce proof of attendance at an interview or they will not be entitled to payment for the time absent. For this purpose, a statutory declaration will be sufficient.
- (c) This entitlement applies instead of clause 11.3.

12.6 Transmission

The provisions of clause 12 of this Agreement are not applicable where a business is transmitted from nbn (in this subclause called the transmittor) to another employer (in this subclause called the transmittee), in any of the following circumstances:

- (a) Where the Employee accepts employment with the transmittee which recognises the period of continuous service which the Employee had with the transmittor and any prior transmittor to be continuous service of the Employee with the transmittee; or
- (b) Where the Employee rejects an offer of suitable alternative employment with the transmittee.

In circumstances where a business is transmitted from the transmittor to the transmittee and an Employee becomes employed by the transmittee all redundancy provisions under this Agreement will be preserved as at the date of the Employee's transmission of employment.

12.7 Suitable Alternative Employment

- (a) nbn, in a particular redundancy case, may make application to the Commission to have the general severance pay prescription varied if the nbn obtains acceptable alternative employment for an Employee.
- (b) This provision does not apply in circumstances involving transmission of business as set out in clause 12.6.

13. Classifications

13.2 Annualised pay arrangements

- (a) nbn may pay an Employee classified in Band 4 in Schedule A of this Agreement an annual allowance in addition to the Employee's annual base rate of pay. Where an annual allowance is paid to a Band 4 Employee it will be in circumstances where it is agreed between nbn and an Employee that the Agreement provisions relating to allowances, hours of work, start and finish times, overtime and public holidays shall not apply because they have been compensated for by the annual allowance. The annual allowance will be calculated by nbn to ensure that the Employee is no worse off in monetary terms than had the relevant Agreement terms been applied.
- (b) An Employee will be advised in writing the method of compensation being used.

17.2 Voluntary Post Tax Employee contributions

- (a) Subject to the governing rules of the relevant superannuation fund, an Employee may, in writing, authorise nbn to pay on behalf of the Employee a specified amount from the post-taxation wages of the Employee into the same superannuation fund as nbn makes the superannuation contributions provided for in clause 17.1.
- (b) An Employee may adjust the amount the Employee has authorised nbn to pay from the wages of the Employee from the first of the month following the giving of three months' written notice to nbn.

Agreement in this respect may also be reached between nbn and an individual Employee:

 - (ii) a roster may operate on the basis that the weekly average of 38 ordinary hours is worked over a period which exceeds 28 consecutive days but does not exceed 12 months.
- (b) Where an agreement is reached by the majority of Employees it will apply to all the Employees in the workplace or section(s) to which the agreement applies. This does not in any way restrict the application of an individual agreement.
- (c) Where an agreement is reached in accordance with clause 18.11(a), the agreement will be recorded in the time and wages records.

18.12 Weekend penalty loading

- (a) Employees are entitled to a loading of 50% for ordinary time worked:
 - (i) between midnight on Friday and midnight on Saturday.
- (b) Employees are entitled to a loading of 100% for ordinary time worked:

18.13 The loadings in clause 18 Hours of work are not payable for periods of overtime or for time worked on public holidays.

18.14 Daylight saving

For work performed which spans the time of introduction or cessation of a system of daylight saving as prescribed by relevant state or territory legislation, an Employee will be paid according to adjusted time (i.e. the time on the clock at the beginning of work and the time on the clock, at the end of work).

19. Overtime and Penalty Rates

19.1 Overtime and Overtime rates

- (a) An Employee is required to work reasonable overtime subject to the provisions of clause 19.1(b)
- (b) An Employee may refuse to work overtime in circumstances where the working of such overtime would result in the Employee working hours which are unreasonable having regard to:
 - (i) any risk to Employee health and safety;
 - (ii) the Employee's personal circumstances including any family responsibilities;
 - (iii) the needs of the workplace or enterprise;
 - (iv) the notice (if any) given by nbn of the overtime and by the Employee of his or her intention to refuse it; and
 - (v) any other relevant matter.
- (c) Daily ordinary hours are arranged in accordance with clause 18.4 or 18.6. All work done in excess of the daily ordinary hours by an Employee Monday to Friday will be paid at the rate of time and a half for the first three hours and double time thereafter. All overtime worked by an Employee on a Saturday will be paid at the rate of time and a half for the first three hours and double time thereafter. All overtime worked by an Employee on Sunday will be paid at double time.
- (d) In computing overtime, each day's work will stand alone.
- (e) Employees who are late starting or are absent for part of their ordinary hours on unpaid leave will complete their ordinary hours for that day prior to the entitlement to overtime.

19.2 Minimum payment

- (a) An Employee required to work overtime will be paid for a minimum of three hours at the appropriate rate except where such overtime is worked prior to or at the conclusion of ordinary hours of work.
- (b) In such circumstances, the Employee will receive payment at the rate prescribed in clause 19.1 hereof for the actual time worked.

19.3 Rest break during overtime

An Employee working overtime will be allowed a rest break of 20 minutes without deduction of pay after each four hours of overtime if the Employee continues to work after such rest break.

19.4 Rest period after overtime

- (a) When overtime work is necessary, it will wherever reasonably practicable be so arranged that Employees have at least 10 consecutive hours off duty between the work of successive days.
- (b) An Employee (other than a casual or part-time Employee), who works so much overtime between the termination of the ordinary work on one day and the commencement of the ordinary work on the next day that the Employee did not have at least 10 consecutive hours off duty between those times will, subject to this clause, be released after completion of such overtime until the Employee has had 10 consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during such absence.

- (c) If on the instructions of nbn an Employee resumes or continues work without having had such 10 consecutive hours off duty, the Employee will be paid at the rate of double time until released from duty for such period and then is entitled to be absent until the Employee has had 10 consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay.
- (d) The provisions of this clause will not apply to call backs where the time worked is less than three hours during the call back or each call back. Provided that where the total number of hours worked on more than one call back is four hours or more then the provisions of clauses 19.4(b) and 19.4(c) will apply.

19.5 Time off instead of payment for overtime

- (a) An Employee may request, with the consent of nbn, to take time off instead of payment for overtime at a time or times agreed by nbn. This agreement must be in writing. The Employee must take the time off within four weeks of working the overtime unless otherwise mutually agreed.
- (b) If the Employee takes time off instead of payment for overtime then the amount of time off during ordinary hours will be taken at the ordinary time rate, (that is an hour for each hour worked).
- (c) If requested by an Employee, nbn must, within one week of receiving a request, pay the Employee for any overtime worked. The Employee must be paid at overtime rates.

19.6 Call back

- (a) An Employee recalled to work overtime after leaving work will be paid a minimum of three hours at the appropriate overtime rate for each time recalled, except where the overtime is continuous (subject to a meal break) with the commencement or completion of ordinary hours. An Employee will not be required to work the full three hours if the job(s) recalled to perform are completed within a shorter period.
- (b) Notwithstanding (a) above, where an Employee has completed the call back and left work and is recalled within the three hour minimum period for that call back, the balance of the three hours' minimum period for that call back will be cancelled and the Employee will only be paid up to the commencement of the next call back. The Employee will then be entitled to be paid for a minimum of three hours for the next call back.
- (c) Overtime worked in circumstances specified in this clause will not be regarded as overtime for the purposes of clause 19.4 where the time worked is less than three hours during the call back or each call back. Provided that where the total number of hours worked on more than one call back is four hours or more then the provisions of clauses 19.4(b) and 19.4(c) will apply.

19.7 Rates not cumulative

The rates prescribed in this clause are in substitution for and not cumulative upon the loadings prescribed in clause 26 – Public Holidays.

The timing of such rest breaks will be at nbn's discretion, depending upon operational requirements.

20.3 Flexibility in relation to meal breaks

- (a) The following forms of flexibility may be implemented in respect of all Employees in a workplace or section(s) thereof, subject to agreement between nbn and the majority of the Employees concerned in the workplace or relevant section(s). Agreement in this respect may also be reached between nbn and an individual Employee:
- (i) Employees may work in excess of five hours but not more than six hours without a meal break;
 - (ii) meal breaks may be for a period of less than 30 minutes. An Employee and nbn may agree to less than 30 minutes, but not less than 20 minutes.
- (b) Where an agreement is reached by the majority of Employees, it will apply to all the Employees in the workplace or section(s) to which the agreement applies. This does not in any way restrict the application of an individual agreement.

20.4 An Employee directed by nbn to work in excess of five hours without a meal break (or such period as extended in accordance with clause 20.3) and will be paid at the rate of time and a half for the meal period and the Employee will be permitted to have the Employee's usual meal period without deduction from the Employee's wage as soon as possible after the prescribed meal period.

- (b) 17.5% annual leave loading has been taken into account in determining the remuneration of an Employee under this Agreement. Except as provided in clause 21.2(c) annual leave loading will not be paid to an Employee on annual leave entitlements because the Employees remuneration has been fixed having regard to this fact.
- (c) Where an Employee would have received loadings, in accordance with clause 18 - Hours of work, of this Agreement, had the Employee not been on annual leave and such loadings would have entitled the Employee to a greater amount than the loading of 17.5% that was taken into account fixing the Employees remuneration, then the Employee will be paid a pro rata top up payment at the time the annual leave is taken by the Employee.

21.3 Excessive leave

If nbn has genuinely tried to reach agreement with an Employee as to the timing of taking annual leave, nbn can require the Employee to take annual leave by giving not less than four weeks' notice of the time when such leave is to be taken if:

21.5 Annual close-down

- (a) nbn may close down an enterprise or part of it for the purpose of allowing annual leave to all or the majority of the Employees in the enterprise or part concerned, provided that nbn gives at least one month's notice to the affected Employees. The notice will advise Employees of the commencement date and duration of the close-down.
- (b) nbn may close down for one or two periods. Where there is agreement between nbn and the majority of Employees concerned, nbn may close down for more than two periods.
- (c) An Employee who has accrued sufficient leave to cover the period of the close-down, is allowed leave and also paid for that leave at the appropriate wage. An Employee who has not accrued sufficient leave to cover part or all of the close-down is allowed paid leave for the period for which they have accrued sufficient leave and given unpaid leave for the remainder of the closedown.

21.6 nbn will permit Employee's reasonable flexibility in taking annual leave with such leave to be taken in accordance with nbn policies.

21.7 Purchased Leave

nbn policies will provide opportunities by which each permanent full time and part time Employee, may, subject to agreement with nbn and in accordance with its policies participate in a scheme to purchase up to four weeks additional purchased leave per anniversary year from their base rate of pay. - (i) Band 1 is an entry level band that enables Employees to acquire skill sets necessary to move to positions in higher bands. However, band 1 is not an exclusive entry point into this classification structure.
- (j) Unless otherwise specified in this Agreement an Employees base weekly rate of pay is calculated by dividing the Employees base salary per annum in the table in (b) above by 52. An Employees base hourly rate of pay is calculated by dividing the Employees base salary per annum in the table in (b) above by 52 and then by 38.

Career Development Allowance

Temporarily working in a higher band for a period of less than one day will not entitle Employees to any additional payments. If the period is for more than one continuous day of work in the higher band an allowance will be paid. The allowance will be the difference between the Employee's current base rate of pay and the minimum base rate of pay for the band in which the higher job is allocated. The allowance will not apply to any periods of paid leave.
